

Your city's pictures

Please send three to four high-resolution photos (original, uncompressed and not resized) along with your city's application. The photos should be city pictures and pictures related to lifelong learning best practices. The picture recommendations are the following: horizontal, 300 dpi, around 2,000 pixels' width. Each photo must be accompanied by a short description as well as copyright information. Kindly note that the photos you provide might be displayed on the UNESCO Global Network of Learning Cities website (<http://uil.unesco.org/learning-cities>) if your city's application has been accepted by the UNESCO GNLC Coordination Team.

The mayor, mr. Wanchai Chongsuttanamanee, and The JICA were seeing around Keereechai Yama Project that is about natural Community. This project will make more money and also build lifelong learning in the future.

Participants were performing with their folk music skill at Elderly Learning School. The school has many local curriculums that can offer you to join us. You will have fun and get more some learning with your friends. Also, it makes you building a relationship among others.

The Chiangrai Municipality is working partner with Mr.Zhang Qiwen, who is a school representative from Guangxi, People's Republic of China. They will exchange likely foreign educational, religion and each cultural. This will support learning way on academic levels or kind of experience in your life which help the city being learning city.

© Chiang Rai Municipality 2018

A smart technologies of Burapha University research cooperate with Chiang Rai Municipality to improve on health's people. It supports continuous learning environment and warning alarm for rescue people.

Focusing Smart living system in practice, the officers and the partners were discussing on how can running on efficiently. What if your home got a smart technologies, it will change a home to become a smart home.